

GRAND ARMY MOVEMENT!

Sure to take Place, without regard to Mud or Weather,
AT LAWRENCE,
APRIL 29th and 30th, and MAY 1st, 1863.

The Citizens of Lawrence, for the purpose of relieving the wants and adding to the comforts of the Sick and Wounded Soldiers of the Union Armies, will, on the above mentioned days, hold at their CITY HALL, which, in its combination of utility, amusement and varied attractions, will excel any thing of the kind heretofore offered to the public.

A FAIR;

There will be exhibited for sale a great variety of

USEFUL AND FANCY ARTICLES,

Prepared under the direction of Ladies of acknowledged taste and skill.

Prominent among the attractions will be a FISH POND, where every one can be certain of a nibble if not a decided bite.

A SHOOTING GALLERY; at which prizes will be the reward of the best shot.

ARCHERY; "Under the green wood tree," where the customs of Robin Hood will be revived.

A PICTURE GALLERY; where lovers of the fine arts can enjoy the choice works of the best artists.

FLOWERS AND FLOWER GIRLS in season and very attractive.

MUSIC, Vocal and Instrumental, by amateurs and performers equaled only by the best.

THE OLD FOLKS will be constantly at home, happy to receive and welcome their young friends, with all the hospitality of a former age.

Besides the usual refreshments of Oysters, Ice Cream, Cake, Coffee, Tea, &c., Meals will be served at all hours in a room connected with the Hall, capable of seating three hundred guests at one time. The table arrangements of this room will equal the best hotels in the country.

The Committee are also happy to announce, that, in addition to an unusually large number of amusing and interesting Exhibitions, the BOYS OF THE HOUSE OF THE ANGEL GUARDIAN will give one of their unrivaled Entertainments on one of the above evenings.

The object of the Fair being such as ought to enlist the sympathies of the whole community, it is hoped that the friends of the cause in the neighboring towns will contribute to its success by their presence, and by such donations of articles, fancy or otherwise, as they may be disposed to offer.

PER ORDER OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Lawrence, April 15, 1863.

USEFUL AND FANCY ARTICLES.

The Ladies of the different Societies who are engaged in making Useful and Fancy Articles, will please leave them as soon as finished with the member of the Committee representing their several Societies, and where the cost of materials used is known, please mark it on the articles, that those appraising them may give them their proper value.

There will be a meeting of the Committee every Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the Common Council Room, City Hall.
